Value/Duration:	$4,000 USD for one year
Level of Study:	Master's or Doctoral
Required Legal Status:	International (Citizens and permanent residents of Canada and the United States are ineligible)
Results:	June 2025

Purpose

The mission of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International is to promote the professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education. The World Fellowship Fund was established to provide opportunities for international women to pursue graduate studies in Canada and the United States.

Eligibility to Apply

Applicants must:

- Be currently registered full-time in a master's or doctoral program at the University of Toronto;
- Identify as a woman student;
- Have a valid study permit (Citizens and permanent residents of Canada or the United States are ineligible);
- Not be completing their degree requirements in 2025. Award holders must be registered full-time in their program throughout the 2025-26 academic year in order to receive and retain the funds; and
- Not currently be a member of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International.

Preference is given to candidates who plan to return to and create an impact within their home countries.

Application Process

In order to submit the required materials (posted on the SGS website), applicants must complete and submit an online submission form by 4:30pm on Monday, December 2, 2024.

Applicants are responsible for ensuring that each of their 3 referees email the completed DKG Letter of Reference Form directly to graduate.awards@utoronto.ca by Monday, November 25, 2024 (which is 1 week earlier than the applicants' submission deadline).

Incomplete applications or late materials will not be considered.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to review the SGS website for further details on eligibility, application instructions and requirements.

Results

All complete and eligible applications from the University of Toronto are reviewed by the DKG Toronto World Fellowships Committee, which selects the top ten (10) applications. SGS' Graduate Awards Office will notify all applicants via their U of T email address of the university's competition results in late-February.

The top ten (10) Toronto applications are forwarded to the DKG International World Fellowships Committee for final adjudication against the top applicants from all participating universities across Canada and the United States. The total number of Canadian awardees varies from year to year. The final results are communicated to applicants in June.
